

Le programmeur de données - endiguant

Database/Data warehouse developer is required for top-tier investment bank to work across the global Fixed Income and Equities business areas. The analytics team is involved in extracting, transforming and loading a large volume of data from sales and trading systems, plus building reporting applications on this data. The role will participate in business analysis, design, development and testing of new applications plus maintenance of existing systems.

Add to Job Basket

Le site par Cubik
©2010 Equal2 Recruitment France